

Sacramento County District Attorney Jan Scully Endorses Angelique Ashby for City Council

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friday, April 9, 2010

Sacramento, CA – Sacramento County District Attorney Jan Scully today announced her endorsement of Angelique Ashby for the upcoming District 1 City Council race.

“I am proud to offer my support and endorsement to Angelique Ashby for the District 1 City Council race,” said Sacramento County District Attorney Jan Scully. “As County District Attorney, no one is more concerned than I am about public safety. Angelique and I share a commitment to public safety and a commitment to ensuring that our whole community is one where our citizens are protected and secure.”

The Sacramento County District Attorney is a non-partisan elected position that provides public protection in Sacramento County, both in the courtroom and in the community. The Sacramento District Attorney’s office prosecutes cases brought by almost 40 state federal and local agencies, with the Sacramento Sheriff's Department and Sacramento Police Department accounting for the great majority of these cases.
